

Louis Lee
Senior Retail Investment Broker
Dunton Commercial Real Estate Company

Louis Lee began his real estate career in 1982 when he worked for a national brokerage firm handling retail and residential income properties. He was the commercial sales manager for his office in 1984 and provided assistance to agents as needed and led educational sales meetings.

In 1987, Louis joined Marcus and Millichap Investment Real Estate Company, as an investment real estate broker handling commercial property evaluation, analysis, marketing and sales.

In 1990, he joined Omnivest Real Estate, a multifaceted international investment company acquiring properties for their own investments as well as providing commercial and residential brokerage services. A good deal of his sales and leasing efforts were directed at bank-owned properties. These transactions included office buildings, apartments, retail properties, and business opportunities.

Louis joined a long established Denver commercial real estate in 1993. Moore Commercial Real Estate had been established in 1930's. In 1999 Coldwell Banker Commercial bought Moore Commercial where Louis was promoted to Senior Vice President. During this period he handled retail and investment properties.

In June of 2004, Louis joins Dunton Commercial Real Estate to become a member of their retail team specializing in retail sales and leasing with a focus on retail investment properties.

Louis is a Colorado native and attended Metropolitan State College in Denver and the University of Colorado in Boulder where he majored in business. He is a member of the Denver Metropolitan Commercial Association of REALTORS®, International Council of Shopping Centers and a CCIM candidate.

Louis's current marketing efforts include various user buildings, investment properties and development projects.
